

Could you write the exact conversation Paco, Sonia and John had?

Reported Speech

Sonia introduced me to Paco who said he was pleased to meet me. I replied that it was my pleasure, and that I hoped he was enjoying his stay in Mumbai. He said he thought Mumbai was a beautiful city, but that there were too many people. He said that he had been staying at the Leela Kempinski Mumbai Hotel for three weeks, and that he hadn't seen everything he would have liked to yet. He added that something that had surprised him was the weather. It had been raining since he had arrived. Sonia replied that he should have brought warmer clothes. He then continued by saying that he was going to fly to Saigon the following week, and he that he couldn't wait to enjoy some sunny weather. Both Sonia and I commented that Paco was a lucky person indeed.

Direct or Quoted Speech

Sonia: Hi, John. Let me introduce you to my brother, Paco.

Paco: Please to meet you.

John (I): It is my pleasure. I hope you are enjoying your stay in Mumbai.

Paco: I think Mumbai is a beautiful city, but there are too many people! I have been at the Leela Kempinski Mumbai Hotel for three weeks. I haven't seen everything I would like to see yet. Something that has surprised me is the weather. It has been raining since I arrived.

Sonia: You should have brought warmer clothes.

Paco: I am going to fly to Saigon next week. I can't wait to enjoy some sunny weather.

John (I): You're a lucky person.

Sonia: Yes, you're a lucky person, indeed.
